- Inform clients that their information is shared across a group, including where this information is shared with entities in other countries.

- Inform clients of the consequences that they will face if they refuse to provide personal information, provided that this will not amount to tipping off (ie, informing a client that a suspicious transaction/activity report has been filed with the FIC);
- If the client refuses to provide personal information that is required for purposes of complying with FICA, the accountable institution must consider filing a report in terms of FICA; and
